One system for the Foundation, the Tournament and T-Time

A plan to help people find, support and take part in the work you already do.

Robert, thank you for the letter and the flyers. I looked at how a golfer, sponsor or grant officer finds the Foundation, the May 8 tournament and T-Time. Here is a plan to connect them, with the work, timing and cost for each step.

You asked for one practical platform you can maintain yourself. I will set it up, show you how to use it and handle the upkeep. You bring the vision, relationships and flyers, and we spend thirty minutes a week deciding what comes next.

WHAT I FOUND

Four tournaments, fifty students to the Florida Classic and a backpack drive with the mall give the Foundation a story to tell, alongside your father's two Hall of Fame inductions. Here is what people encounter when they look for that work online:

- The flyer leads to registration; public links need updating. The QR code reaches the current page. That page is set to unlisted and was absent from GolfStatus's directory and the Google results checked. The links on Facebook and the Sebring Chamber still point to the 2024 BirdEase page, which now says "Unpublished Event." A golfer who searches "Saffold golf tournament" lands on a third-party listing that names the wrong course.
- The registration page and flyer give golfers different details. The page retains text and settings from 2025: the text says May 9 where the header says May 8, the start time is set to 10 AM instead of 8 AM, the team price switches from $330 to $360 on April 2 while the flyer says $330, there is no $100 day-of price and no two-for-one package, the hole-in-one copy says $20,000 where the flyer says $5,000, registration closes May 3 where the flyer says May 1, donations are switched off, and the confirmation email a golfer receives begins "Dear Sponsors." As of October 16, the page showed zero online registrations since its creation on May 13.

- The Foundation needs a central place for people to get involved. The audit found no website, Google Business Profile, email signup, contact form or volunteer form. Three different addresses and three different phone numbers circulate across directories, and the Yelp and MapQuest listings publish a home address.
- T-Time has an open lane. The search for "black golf tournaments Florida calendar" found individual events but no statewide calendar. The association your father helped found in 1972 lists seven affiliate clubs. Their events give us a starting point for T-Time and its first partner invitations.
- Two grant deadlines give us dates to work toward. The Elks National Foundation grants through Sebring Lodge #1529 close January 20, 2027. Walmart's local grant cycle closes November 30, 2026. Google offers eligible nonprofits email on their own domain and up to $10,000 a month in search advertising. The advertising program requires a qualifying website and separate approval.

> One small thing first, at no charge. John Simpson's new Hall of Fame inductee page lists your father, Class of 1996, with the words "Record incomplete." I built that page for John. Send me one photograph and three sentences about your father and I will have his record completed and confirmed with John this week. It costs nothing, and it gives every piece that follows a Hall of Fame page to point to.

THE ONE-PLATFORM ANSWER

GolfStatus already holds your tournament packages and offers qualifying nonprofits access with no upfront or monthly fee. Transaction fees apply. I will build and maintain the year-round website and follow-up around it:

- GolfStatus stays for registration, pairings, scoring and the day itself. I fix the page and keep it right.
- In4Par brings the work together for everything year-round: the Foundation website, T-Time, your contact list, sponsor and volunteer follow-up, text and email reminders, the social calendar, and a dashboard of who said yes. I handle the setup and upkeep, and you see one simple screen.

- A donation form on your website gives supporters another way to give, with automatic receipts through a nonprofit platform funded by optional donor tips.

Givebutter, Google Workspace for Nonprofits and Canva for Nonprofits offer free options for eligible organizations. We will set up those accounts in the Foundation's name. My fee covers the setup, the In4Par platform and ongoing support.

THE PLAN

Phase 0
THIS WEEK, NO CHARGE

Make the next step clear for golfers. Complete your father's Hall of Fame record with John. Work through the GolfStatus findings, align the page with your flyer, make it public, switch donations on and write a player confirmation email. Correct the Chamber listing, the third-party listing that names the wrong course, and the Facebook links. Consistent contact details, with the P.O. Box used for public mailing information where accepted.

Phase 1
OCTOBER 26 TO NOVEMBER 20

Give the Foundation a home. Your own domain and a seven-page website: Home, About (with both Hall of Fame inductions), Programs, Tournament, T-Time, Donate, Contact. Sponsor, volunteer and contact forms that land in your list. A Google Business Profile, subject to eligibility and verification. Email on your own domain. Google Analytics and Search Console so we can see what works. Text messaging registered in the Foundation's name. We file the Walmart grant before November 30 and submit the Google for Nonprofits application.

Phase 2
NOVEMBER 23 TO JANUARY 15

Launch T-Time for the Expo. The African American Golf Expo runs January 24 to 28, 2027 in Orlando, alongside the PGA Show. That is our target launch venue. I audit the site your developer built, connect it to your domain, and add an event submission form that feeds your list. We confirm event details with Florida organizers, build the first listings, invite the statewide association and its seven listed clubs as founding partners, and print a calendar for the Expo. I write the partner letters and the rate card for featured listings and sponsors.

Phase 3
JANUARY TO MAY 8

Fill the field and the sponsor board. Work with Sebring Lodge #1529 toward its Elks grant application before January 20. A two-for-one push before January 31. A thirty-name sponsor ask list drawn from companies already giving in Highlands County, with a two-page sponsor sheet and a weekly review of who has been asked and who has said yes. Eight to ten named volunteer jobs posted to the county's retiree volunteer program and the three high schools' service-hour offices. Reminders to every registered player the week of the tournament. After May 8, a thank-you to every player, sponsor and volunteer, and a one-page report of what the day raised.

WHAT YOU WILL SEE

- One screen on your phone: who registered, who sponsored, who volunteered, who still needs a call.
- A website and a T-Time calendar you can edit yourself, with me a text away.
- Numbers you can put in a grant application: visitors, registrations, dollars, volunteer hours.
- A sponsor list with records and reminders for next year's renewal calls.

WHAT I NEED FROM YOU

- A photograph of your father and three sentences for the Hall of Fame record.
- Logins for GolfStatus, Facebook, Canva and the T-Time site, and the name of your developer.
- The IRS determination letter and EIN for the applications and text messaging setup.
- Thirty minutes a week on the phone. I bring the list, you make the decisions.

Out-of-pocket items (the domain, about $15 a year; text message carrier fees, a few dollars a month) are passed through at cost. Grant applications in Phase 1 and Phase 3 are included. The optional performance arrangement is 10% of new sponsorship dollars in place of the monthly fee from February through May.

NEXT STEP

Send me the photograph and three sentences, and I will begin with your father's Hall of Fame record at no charge. If this plan reads right, use the payment button under the phase you want to start, or reply with "go" and I will send a short agreement and the list of logins I need. Call me with any changes you want. We can shape the plan around your priorities.
